4. Photostatic copies of the following documents, concerning work norms and norm fulfillment of VEB Schiffselektrik Rostock, are available at the CIA Library:

- a. Number of employees scheduled for work during March 1955 and the actual number working (1 page)
- b. Memorandum from VEB Schiffselektrik Rostock to the Kreis Direction III Rostock, concerning plan fulfillment for the first quarter of 1955 (2 pages)
- c. A projected plan for winding up the transfer of the enterprise to the shipyards; according to this plan, the production and construction departments are to be subdivided into large construction, small construction, and miscellaneous, and were to be distributed during May and June 1955 among the various shipyards, as follows:

Large Construction Offices:

- Neptunwerft
- Warnemuende
- Wismar
- Stralsund I (Volkswerft)
- Stralsund II (Ship's Repair)
- Boizenburg
- Wolgast

Small Construction Offices:

- Fuerstenberg
- Oderberg
- Koepenick
- Brandenburg
- Rosslau
- Rothensee
- Rostock-Bramow (Fischkombinat Rostock)

Miscellaneous Production Sections:

- Uebigau
- Schalttafelwerkstatt (switchboards)
- Gravierwerkstatt (engraving)

The construction bureaus will also be subdivided; the construction groups which are already located in shipyards will be transferred to production departments; the remainder will be transferred to the Central Construction Bureaus at Wolgast, Koepenick, and the EAW "J.W. Stalin" Berlin-Treptow, in June and early July 1955. Personnel will be transferred with their departments. (9 pages)
